Are we getting this right?

We've sent you this dedicated 'Children's & Parenting' email based on what you've already watched, read or listened to from across the BBC.

Let us know if we're on the right track. A 'thumbs up' means you will continue to receive these 'Children's & Parenting' updates. A 'thumbs down' means we will not email you about this again. Either way we'll remember for next time.
