

Appeals Procedure

If we are unable to offer your child a place because the appropriate year group is full, parents have the right to appeal to Blackpool Children's Services. For further information, please refer to the 'Guide for Parents' available from the School Admissions Team at Progress House.

Please note that under current legislation there is no formal appeal system for Nursery places.